A YELLOW TRAM AND A SLOW AFTERNOON

12/6/2026 | MOOD: HAPPY

Fictional demo trip with licensed stock photos, not a customer travel story. I imagined arriving with no checklist: just a yellow tram, warm stone streets, and time to notice the city. A small moment I would want to keep.

ROOFTOPS, RIVER, AND A LITTLE PAUSE

13/6/2026 | MOOD: GRATEFUL

The best part of this sample day is the pause above the rooftops. Terracotta tiles fill the view and the river softens the horizon. I would save the photo with a few words about the quiet, rather than a list of places.

ONE LAST VIEW OF THE WATER

14/6/2026 | MOOD: PEACEFUL

For the final page of this imagined weekend, a bridge stretches across still water. The warm light feels like a good place to stop writing. Three short entries and three photos are enough to turn a weekend into a keepsake.
